The chamber of commerce rooms are bristling with business and almost any hour of the night finds the secretary and his assistants or the officers of the chamber up to their ears in work.

It is stated that the Silver Lead Soap company, of Denver, are preparing to start a soap plant in this city, with a capacity of 100 boxes of 100 pounds each daily, and a force of twenty bands. A scheme is on foot in Salt Lake for the opening up of 100,0:0 acres of beautiful land in southern Utah for agricultural purposes. The company will incorporate shortly with $500,0:0 capital.

The new railroad Exchange hotel building is rapidly progressing, the first story being already nearly completed. The building is to be four stories in height and will be a commodious and roomy hotel.
